

A man is arrested. (1) The police hold him for several days before telling him the charge against him. (2) He calls an attorney who makes plans for the trial. (3) At the trial, various witnesses are called to testify against the man. (4) However, his attorney is not allowed to ask questions of the witnesses. (5) A judge finds him guilty of the crime. Which stages in this situation seem to be violations of the man's Sixth Amendment rights?

parts 1 and 4 are violations. police cannot legally do that.

hope i helped! ;)

The constitution addressed slavery by: referring numerous times to "slaves" or "slavery" counting slaves as three fifths of a person for the purposes of apportionment requiring that all slaves count toward a state's congressional representation making it legal in every state requiring that slaves have full legal protections

What does evolution theory mean?

What does the following sentence mean: "In direct rule sowed the seeds for class and ethnic tensions"?

Use your calculator to find a six decimal approximation for log base (6/5) of 6.8

Mr. Smith earns 6% commission on every house he sells. If he earns $9,000, what was the price of the house?

Which of these were common types of artwork produced in europe by artists of the international gothic style? check all that apply.a. marble sculpturesb. red-tinted potteryc. woven tapestriesd. church friezese. portable altarpiecesf. illuminated manuscripts?

Each employee can assemble 28 castles per hour. How many employees worked each hour? (What is the answer to this?)

Read this excerpt and complete the sentences that follow. A Shropshire Lad

by A. E. Housman (excerpt)

When I was one-and-twenty

I heard a wise man say,

"Give crowns and pounds and guineas

But not your heart away;

Give pearls away and rubies

But keep your fancy free."
But I was one-and-twenty,
No use to talk to me.

When I was one-and-twenty
I heard him say again,
"The heart out of the bosom
Was never given in vain;
'Tis paid with sighs a plenty
And sold for endless rue."
And I am two-and-twenty,
And oh, 'tis true, 'tis true.

The central theme of the poem is _____

1. how one should spend money
2. how one should accumulate wealth
3. how one should attain wisdom
4. how one should invest love

In the end, the poet _____ the wise man's views.

1. doubts
2. agrees with
3. resents
4. considers

I already know the answer is

The central theme of the poem is how one should invest love. (1)

In the end, the poet agrees with the wise man's views. (2)

just wanted to help out

A local charity held a crafts fair selling donated, handmade items. Total proceeds from the were $1,380. A total of 72 items were sold, some at $15 each and the rest at $25 each. Let x be the number of $15 items and y the number of $25 items. How many items sold $25?

$19.7 \div 3$ what's the estimate quotient

A seemingly arbitrary flash "out of the blue," through which the solution to a problem suddenly becomes apparent to you, but you do not consciously know how you "figured it out," is called _____. a. priming b. brainstorming c. mental set d. insight

Please help ASAP! brainliest! 99 points! Using examples from any two of the myths in this module, write a four-paragraph essay that describes what the Greeks thought an ideal hero should be. Use evidence from the myths as support.

A relation is a function if _____. there is exactly one input for each output

there is exactly one output for each input

there is more than one input for each output

there is more than one output for each input

An increase in the real interest rate A. increases the quantity of loanable funds supplied. B. has no effect on the loanable funds. C. shifts the supply of loanable funds curve rightward. D. increases current consumption. E. decreases the quantity of loanable funds supplied.

Which literary device is represented by the house references in "I dwell in Possibility" 50 POINTS

What problem the Mayflower compact solved ?

131.12 divided by 44

Why did spanish authorities close the port of new orleans?

1. Home
2. More Solution