

Why is the Christian Cross important to Christianity?

The Christian Cross is important to Christianity because it represents the wooden cross Jesus had died on. It is the symbol for sacrifice and love of the Lord for humanity.

Answer:

I'm glad you asked!

Explanation:

It shows the cross, that Jesus died on to give Christians eternal life.

The ideas of the enlightenment, including the concept of the social contract, influenced the American Revolution. Which of these statements best explains what a social contract is?

What is the length of the conjugate axis?

The hormone _____ appears to be designed, from an evolutionary standpoint, to protect the body against weight loss. Question 9 options:

A forecast is defined as a(n) a. set of observations on a variable measured at successive points in time. b. prediction of future values of a time series. c. outcome of a random experiment. d. quantitative method used when historical data on the variable of interest are either unavailable or not applicable.

Phoebe removes frozen vegetables from the freezer to make herself a stir-fry. She's in a bit of a hurry, so she immerses the plastic bag of vegetables in a pot of warm water. As a result, the vegetables thaw in less than 15 minutes. Which sentences accurately describe the heat transfer that has taken place? A. The plastic bag conducted heat to the vegetables.

B. The water and vegetables both lost an equal amount of heat.

C. Heat from the vegetables was transferred to the water.

D. Atoms in the vegetables began vibrating faster.

E. Water in contact with the plastic bag cooled down.

When is the best time to use a bar graph

NEED HELP! Assume that the variables x and y are directly related. If $k = 8$, what is the value for each of the following points? Be sure and record your data to be used in the following problem. x y k 0.5 _____ 8 1 _____ 8 2 _____ 8 3 _____ 8

In a certain Algebra 2 class of 24 students, 5 of them play basketball and 9 of them play baseball. There are 12 students who play neither sport. What is the probability that a student chosen randomly from the class plays basketball or baseball?

Marcos (practical) deportes

What is the difference between Darwin's theory of evolution and Lamarck's theory of evolution?

The philosophy of stoicism, propounded by the Roman slave-philosopher Epictetus, declared what basic principle or idea?

Which of the following is the correct sequence of Allport's idiographic levels of organization from LEAST salient/characteristic and LEAST pervasive to MOST salient/characteristic and MOST pervasive? Select one: a. Secondary, Cardinal, Central b. Secondary, Central, Cardinal c. Central, Secondary, Cardinal d. Cardinal, Secondary, Central

Which region of Earth's crust experiences the least amount of pressure? crust mantle outer core inner core FedEx offers its customers fast and reliable package delivery. When FedEx customers weigh these benefits against the monetary cost of using FedEx along with other costs of using the service, they are acting upon _____.

The journal entry to record the receipt of inventory purchased for cash in a perpetual inventory system would be Humans have a diploid chromosome number of 46. For each of the mitotic or meiotic phases listed below, state the number of chromosomes present and the amount of DNA present in the cell assuming a DNA concentration of 1X in the diploid. a) telophase of mitosis

b) telophase of meiosis II

c) Metaphase of mitosis

d) Metaphase I of meiosis

Determine whether the number could be the probability of an event. Explain your reasoning. ? 0 . 25

Each person in a ticket line gets either one or two tickets. You are the 51st person in line. Forty percent of the people in front of you get one ticket each, and the rest of the people in front of you get two tickets each. How many tickets will have been given out when you reach the ticket booth?

1. Home
2. More Solution